

Speech Pathology

Primary & Community Health
South Western Sydney Local Health District

Your child may need to see a Speech Pathologist if they:

- Do not understand questions or directions.
- Cannot express themselves using words or sentences like other children their age.
- Have not begun to say words by 12 months.
- Have speech that is difficult to understand.
- Stutter or repeat sounds, words or phrases.
- Have a husky or unclear voice.

Health

South Western Sydney
Local Health District

Who can be referred?

Primary & Community Health Speech Pathology accepts referrals for children aged from birth until the end of Term 2 of Kindergarten. We provide assessment and intervention services to children with identified difficulties.

To make a referral or discuss your concerns please contact:

Fairfield
Speech Pathology

Phone: 97941739
SWSLHD-FairfieldCHSpeechPathology@health.nsw.gov.au

Bankstown
Speech Pathology

Phone: 97802777
SWSLHD-BankstownCHSpeechPathology@health.nsw.gov.au

Monday-Friday 8:30am – 5:00pm
Telephone Interpreter Service 131 450.

Referrals and enquiries may be made by parents, carers, health workers, schools or other agencies.

This is a free and confidential service.

Health
South Western Sydney
Local Health District

